PRESIDENT BLACKWELL'S FINAL MESSAGE

STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
SALISBURY, MARYLAND

(June, 1955)

As the date for official separation from the State Teachers College approaches, I find myself reminiscing over developments of the past twenty years. Very vividly I recall Monday, April 15, 1935, when faculty members and students welcomed me so graciously.

Little did I then realize that I would spend twenty of the happiest years of my life within the portals of S. T. C.

I shall ever recall, with genuine satisfaction, experience here in cooperative living, and will look with keen interest to the continued growth of the college.

Mrs. Blackwell and I will anticipate faculty and student visits with us at "Greenacres" in Baltimore County.

The Christmas Spirit

'TWAS THE DAY OF VACATION

'Twas the day of vacation and all through STC

Not a student was listening, not even me,

The papers and books were slung on the floor,

In fear that the period would be a bore.

The idiots were nestled all filled with good cheer,

While old Andy Pandy had her last glass of beer.

With her head in an ice bag and mine in a cap,

Had just settled down for a fourth period nap,

When out in the hall there arose such a clatter,

I sprang from seat to see what was the matter.

Away to the door I flew like a flash

Fell over the desk with a staggering crash.

The equipment on the top of the instructor's desk,

Gave the vision of Old Smokey at it's very best,

When what to my wondering eyes should appear,

But a white -haired man holding a cold glass of beer.

And a pair of binoculars to see what was to be,

I knew in a moment that it must be J. D.

More rapid than eagles, his faculty they came

And he whistled and shouted and called them by name:

''Now Lucy, now Doodles, now Gebby and A. L.

On, Taterhead, on Henrietta, on Jessie and Idabelle,

To the top of the tower, to the end of the hall,

Now dash away, dash away, get busy, you all!''

As dry leaves that before the wild huricane fly,

When they do, they must meet the challenge or die.

So up to the classrooms the faculty they flew,

With their arms full of books and J. D., too!

And, then in a twinkling, I heard in the hall,
The voice of Uncle Howard as he began to bawl.
As I drew in my head and was turning around
In the window came T. J. with a crash and a bound.
He was dressed all in rags, from his head to his foot,
And his clothes were all tarnished with cigarette soot,
A bundle of units he had flung on his back
And he looked like a superviser just blowing his stack!
His eyes, how they glared! His wrinkles, so drawn!
His cheeks were all hollow, and his voice almost gone
His tight little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
And the beard on his chin had just started to grow,
The stump of a cigarette, he held tight in his teeth,
And the smoke it encircled his head like a wreath;
His face was so stern; he looked so mad
We thought for a moment things looked bad.
He was jolly and plump, a right funny old clown
We thought for a while he'd been doing the town!
A pad full of notes and a shake of his head,
Soon gave me to know, I had something to dread.
He spoke not a word, but went straight to Jim Focht
And the whole thing began to look like a joke.
And laying his hand on his aching head,
He jumped out the window and headed for bed.
He sprang in his DeSoto, from the seniors he fled,
If the truth would be known, he had nothing to dread;
But I heard him mutter ere he drove out of sight:
"You student teachers be good, and play flinch tonight!"

And To Thee

We Say Farewell ...

A CLASS REVOLUTION
IT COULD HAPPEN

There once was a class revolution
Which took o'er the school's constitution.
The students decided 'twas time for a change
And soon put the faculty on the firing range.

As ruler of this fair domain
Was DR. ULYSSES S. CUSTIS by name.
His job was to uproot the trees
And speak on the birds and the bees.

His able assistant in this
A man who was full of much bliss,
Another redhead was he
DEAN CURLEY YOUNGER 'twould be.

To help them uproot the trees
And roam with a set of keys
FREDERICKA WOOD could be seen
In men's dorm and mezzanine.

JOHN ADAMS MORAN 'twas said
Made all the students drop dead.
His challenge too great to meet
Made core too much a feat.

TEDDY WEDDY BOWDLE danced
And around her camera pranced.
The tune of Ole Smokey was played
As she led the book parade.

TWEEDIE BIRD SMITH could be heard
Singing her tunes to the birds.
10:10 was the deadline now
And through the hall she would prowl.

HENRIETTA HATTIE'S fame
From her little favors came,
In her little Chevrolet
To the Home she went each day.

JESSIE JOHNSON'S Pilgrim shoes
Tapped out the tune of blues.
Bach and List were soon forgot
When they learned the new fox trot.

From the crowd there came a roar
PATSY WHITNEY took the floor.
In her gym suit white and short,
She got whistles from the court.

Imagine my head the sun
And around me the stars run:
DOODLES DRYDEN tells his classes
As he flirts with all the lasses.

Trousers held up by a rope
Ears still filled up with soap
MACCURDY CARL in Chinese
Gives all the pupils the D'S.

IDA BELLE STOOPS plans a tour
To visit the Southern shore.
The crabs and the oysters there
Really gave her a big scare.

TATERHEAD BRADLEY in lab
Embarrassed the girls so bad
Tales of the Army and sex
Made all the boys stretch their necks.

A. L. WEANIE shot the bull
'til the room was almost full,
But he helped the students learn
Democracy is their concern.

When it comes to higher math
FRANKIE MARSHALL heads the staff
In her class she's an attraction
But she always knows a fraction.

For practical purposes
KENNY R. CAHALL sez,
'Your world map is the key
To learn all geography.

Making all his evening rounds
With his stick POP HASTINGS pounds.
Spreading the glad word he likes
As he goes on his nitely hikes.

In her tight skirts and flying capes
FRANCES WEBSTER strongly debates.
Her only wish is to be proper
And can she come up with some whoppers.

Peanut butter and salt crackers
Still have lots of backers.
As LIL FORSYTHE puts out the dishes
But doesn't stick to student wishes.

Merci beaucoup, mademoiselle
MONSIEUR DENSTON says well.
He has been given a citation
And now written his dissertation.

A Chem major was JIMMY GLENN WOOTON
He did all the things they said he couldn't
With quantities of mixtures in a bowl
He makes the lab shake, rattle and roll.

MAE TRUITT CURTIS got lost one day
But he was found behind the book display.
He thought he heard Moby Dick,
But it was only the clock's tick.

PEGGY RICHARDS will learn soon
She can't replace "Hung the Moon"
Back to P.A. she will chase
And leave Peg Martin in her place.

In her little red dress
BERNIE YOUNG is at her best,
Charts and pictures on the wall
No wonder class is in the hall.

Personal records on the floor
EMORY FOCHT at the door
Hurry up we hear him say
This job was due the other day.

Running up and down the soccer field
Coach BEN ANDERSON shouted and wheeled
Around to tell his soccer team
To hurry and get on the beam.
